The current economic crisis has resulted in increasing numbers of distressed individuals and families seeking mental health assistance. In response to the rising demand for services, Department of Mental Health staff will learn components of the crisis intervention model, and specific interventions, such as how to formulate a crisis plan. They will also learn about the types of losses that occur during a crisis, and how to apply this model to individuals, couples and families.

TARGET AUDIENCE: DMH staff

OBJECTIVES: As a result of attending this training, participants should be able to:

1. Define crisis intervention.
2. Describe three different types of losses that occur during a crisis.
3. Implement specific crisis intervention techniques.
4. Apply the crisis intervention model to individuals, couples and families.
5. Utilize an individual's strengths to cope with a crisis.
6. Describe how individuals in diverse cultures may respond to crisis.
